31 December 1949	7 pilots and 2 enlisted men had performed 15 days active duty for training at NAS., Grasse Ile, Michigan that could not attend annual training maneuvers.

N A R R A T I V E

The high point of this period was the two week annual training at Cherry Point, North Carolina where 38 officers and 80 enlisted men attended the maneuvers. Twenty-four aircraft of Corsair type were assigned the squadron and were flown to Cherry Point, North Carolina by squadron pilots.

Officers and enlisted men found their quarters, lockers and messing facilities very much inadequate. Upon arrival the squadron was assigned quarters, and work in various sections started immediately. Staff officers had a meeting and details of coming operations were passed out. A brief summary was given as to what could be expected from every squadron. From all reports VMF 251 was very close to the top in all classes of performances while on maneuvers. Weather conditions while at camp were excellent throughout the flying period. Two pilots from this squadron were checked out in jet aircraft. Return to home station was carried out without mishap. Twenty-three aircraft were secured, as one plane was left behind due to mechanical difficulty. Physicals were completed and the two week period of training came to an end without an unfavorable incident. It was agreed by all the officers and men that the concluded training was very satisfactory and beneficial to all hands.

During the six months covered in this report VMF 251 flew a total of 1921.2 hours. Flying during the two week cruise involved 981.6 hours, in a total of 561 flights. Time accumulated while at the home station amounted to 939.6 hours, a total of 437 flights. Seven officers, all pilots, performed fifteen days active duty at the home station. Two enlisted men also performed fifteen days active duty at NAS., Grosse Ile, Michigan. A drive was put on for officers to sign up for courses with the Marine Corps Institute, and they responded very enthusiastically. Pilots devoted all spare time to ground school in order to build up the ground school syllabus. Classes in all types of training were performed and carried out which included plotting board problems, link trainers, GCA and GCI procedure.
